Judge Henry Schaefer went out to White Hills Thursday afternoon with a party of experts to examine the bonanza properties.

Richard Cleve, who has been working on the American Flag mine, Wallapai mountains, was in town two or three days this week.

John Barry Jr. came over from the Sunlight mine Sunday after a four-horse load of freight from the depot. He returned to the mine Tuesday morning.

O. F. Kuenser and family have returned from California, where Mrs. Kuenser has been spending the summer, and have resumed their quarters in their handsome residence on Oak Street.

On Monday at three o'clock the telegraph operators at this place were ordered out on a strike, and the trains were tied up until the following day at two p. m., and were ordered back to work the following day, an amicable settlement having been made.

Judge Cowan did a magnanimous thing in giving up his canvass in the northern part of the county to bring in an injured man from Weaver district, a distance of seventy miles. Oscar is too kind-hearted and generous to allow a fellow man to suffer when he can aid him in any way.

The Old Spot saloon opened its doors to the thirsty public Monday. The institution has been thoroughly renovated, and well stocked with excellent liquors and cigars. The new manager will undoubtedly receive his full share of the public patronage.

Several new members were initiated into the mysteries of the first degrees in the Knights of Pythias lodge at this place last Saturday at the regular meeting of the lodge. The order is in a thriving condition at this place, and is steadily adding to its membership some of the best men of the county.

The conundrum tea, given by the ladies of Kingman at the M. E. church last Friday night, was a grand success and the ladies deserve great credit for making the entertainment so enjoyable an affair.

The receipts of the evening were $61.90, and this amount was raised for the purpose of liquidating a portion of the debt incurred in building the M. E. parsonage and also for the running expenses of the church for the past year. Among those who deserve special mention for their efficient service are the Misses Mable Maguire, Nannie Penberthy, Emma Quinones, Effie Tarr, Edna Parker, Minnie Sawyer and Helen Tolman, the young ladies who had charge of the different tables. Everyone present had an enjoyable evening and went away well pleased with the treatment they had received at the hands of their hospitable entertainers. The money raised was paid out the following day proportionately to the church creditors.

W. C. Scott is in from the Flores mine.

Will Eshom spent several days in town this week.

Quite a number of the inhabitants of this county neglected to have their names placed on the great register.

Mr. Corbin, owner of the Kingman townsite lots, has been here the past week taking an inventory of his property.

The high rollers of Kingman were engaged in a festive game of poker yesterday in which over $2,000 changed hands.

We call the attention of the MINER readers this week to the advertisement of our fellow townsman, G. M. Bowers, published in another column.

Jas. Binnett, who has been working at the Flores for some time past, came into Kingman Wednesday for medical treatment. He is suffering from sciatica.

We call attention to the announcement of our fellow townsman, John Laffy, Independent candidate for Justice of the Peace. Jack is a good, capable man and will, if elected, make an efficient officer.

Wallapai Charley took four Indian boys to the Indian school at Mohave City, last night. This makes twenty-one Wallapai children in the institution and it is said they learn more readily than the Mohaves of the same age.

Our merchants ship an immense quantity of goods to White Hills. Twelve mule teams leave here four and five times weekly loaded down to the guards with merchandise, while smaller teams make daily trips with provisions.

Rev. G. F. Bovard, superintendent of the Arizona M. E. Mission, stayed over Sunday on his way from Prescott to his home in Los Angeles and preached an eloquent sermon to a large and appreciative congregation Sunday evening.

There are now between 200 and 300 men in the White Hills engaged in mining and other pursuits. The camp is bustling with life and activity. In a short time the population will reach at least one thousand, as the daily increase is becoming quite noticeable.

The government should purchase the water rights in Truxton valley and erect an Indian school at some point between Hackberry and Truxton. The Indians could be made self sustaining, and the school being near their homes they would not object to sending their children to school.

Jo Duck Wo, one of the early restaurant keepers of Kingman, who has been absent in China for the past year, returned to town last week and is looking for an opening to resume his former occupation. This Chinaman has undoubtedly made more money in the restaurant business than any other person in Mohave county.

A prospector named H. W. Hedeman, had his hand badly injured by an explosion of giant caps at his camp in Weaver district Thursday morning. It appears he was fixing some caps on pieces of fuse preparatory to going into the hills when his attention was attracted to the fire, where he had a pot of beans cooking. With the caps in his hand he approaches the fire, and from some cause, probably a spark, the caps exploded, tearing off two of the fingers and otherwise lacerating the left hand. He was brought into town the same day by L. O. Cowan, who happily was at the camp with a horse and buggy. Dr. Dean was called in and dressed the wounded hand and made the sufferer as comfortable as possible.

Yesterday was Columbus Day.

John Fowler is up from Yucca.

Mrs. H. Graham paid Hackberry a visit one day this week.

Asa Harris and Jas. Smith came into Kingman Tuesday morning from the rodeo at Smith's ranch.

W. R. Judson, superintendent of the Arnold mine, is in Cedar attending to the interests of his company.

Walter F. Smith, president of the Flores company, returned last night from a week's trip through California.

The W. H. Taggart Mercantile Co. has been making improvements in their store by putting down new flooring.

Malcolm McLeish came in from White Hills yesterday evening. He reports the camp much livelier than at any time since its discovery.

Every man having a beard should keep it an even and natural color, and if it is not so already, use Buckingham's Dye and appear tidy.

Frank Cofer came in from the Sandy yesterday with a wagon load of farm produce and is disposing of it to the residents of Kingman.

Wm. Engle returned to Kingman Wednesday from Cedar district where he has been engaged in doing assessment on some of his claims in that region.

The fall rodeos at the Smith Bros. ranch east of town was completed Tuesday. The rodeo party report calves few and range cattle pretty thin and poor.

A. Todd has received an appointment as Deputy Sheriff. Mr. Todd will assist Chief Deputy Ewing at the Sheriff's office during the absence of Sheriff Lake.

Jas. Rosborough came in from an electioneering trip through Indian, Minnesota and Weaver districts Wednesday evening and went up to Hackberry the same night.

Mrs. J. N. Cohenour who has been staying in Kingman for the past ten days, on the sick list, returned to her home in Peach Springs Monday night greatly improved in health.

Joe Laboree left Monday night for the new gold fields in Vanderbilt district, California. We wish him success in finding something of value in the newly discovered fields as he is richly deserving of a goodly slice of nature's hidden mineral wealth.

J. C. Ashury has announced himself as a candidate for constable of this precinct on the democratic ticket. Mr. Ashury has been constable and night watchman in Kingman for the past eight years and we would, of course, like to see him remain on duty.

Thos. Gallagher, the genial Deputy Sheriff of White Hills, has a Keeley Institute at Starkey's butcher camp at Longstreet Springs. He has quite a number of patients and all of them are doing well under the bi-chloride treatment. After quite an exhausting examination of one of the worst cases in the institution, who has been a member thereof for about one month, Mr. Gallagher pronounced that he would be entirely cured (?) in about eight more days and would be released at that time, one of the most wonderful examples of the bi-chloride of gold cure ever discharged from an institution of this character in the civilized globe.

Wellington Starkey came in from White Hills Wednesday evening.

Henry Van Slack, general agent of the A. & P. railroad, was in Kingman Thursday.

Hackberry merchants are shipping a considerable amount of goods to the White Hills.

The Luthy block is receiving a coat of paint. The painter is a thorough workman and will greatly improve the appearance of the buildings.

Neglect of the hair often destroys its vitality and natural hue, and causes it to fall out. Before it is too late apply Hall's Hair Renewer, a sure remedy.

Miss Anniv. D. Ross, of Flagstaff, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Watkins. She has been engaged to teach the Signal school for the present term.

John K. Mackenzie has gone to White Hills on a hunt for the elusive voter. John is a good fellow but he will have to rustle to beat Cowan for Treasurer.

Mrs. H. Graham will soon have a neat and comfortable hotel built at White Hills where visitors to the town can find comfortable rooms and good board. The building will be 34x44 feet with an addition of 16-24 feet.

Many of the presents designed for the wedding of the Princess May and the Duke of Clarence are being exposed for sale in the London shops. Among those, exhibited in a little shop on the Strand, is the celebrated Tiffany necklace, bought in New York for the Princess.

Fifteen thousand cotton looms in Gent, Belgium, have been stopped in consequence of the stagnation of trade. The stoppage will cause great misery among the working people, as the dullness of trade for several months has prevented their making the usual savings for the winter.
